

$2,000 Reward Offered by Bucks County SPCA

FOR INFORMATION LEADING TO ARREST AND CONVICTION IN ANIMAL ABUSE CASE

The Bucks County SPCA is seeking information about the person(s) responsible for abusing an adult male, orange tiger-striped cat found in Doylestown.

The cat, below, appears to have been shot by a nail gun. The large, framing-style nails were found in the top of the cat's head, just over his right eye, in one cheek and just over the right hip. Anyone with information on the situation should call Humane Police Officer Nikki Thompson at 215.794.7425.

Reward doubled to $2,000 for information leading to arrest and conviction!

